Michael Hostina General Counsel Michael O'Brien

Associate General Counsel Matthew Cooper Associate General Counsel Andy Harrington Associate General Counsel Rachel Plumlee

Associate General Counsel

203 Butrovich Building

Fairbanks, Alaska 99775-5160

Telephone: (907) 450-8080

Facsimile: (907) 450-8081

P.O. Box 755160

Legal@alaska.edu

November 14, 2017

TO: Keli Hite McGee, Chief Human Resource Officer

FROM: Michael Hostina, General Counsel

RE: Governance and Union-Related Activity

You asked that I provide guidance regarding governance use of University resources with respect to union organizing activities. In short, no University employee or University-funded employee group may use University resources to engage in or promote union organizing or union activities. This is the case for a number of reasons.

 $By\ law,^2\ University\ resources\ may\ oniznu/P < Ithe\ cno[(uni)-4.6(o\ )-2.3(\ or)-4(\ ub1.7(y)1(r)6.9c-2.3(\ \textbf{tou}(uni)-4.6(opc-2.3(\ \textbf{tou}($ ensure that prompt action is taken to ensure that no University resources are used for union activity.

cc: President Johnsen, Chancellors

&lt;sup>1</sup> Employees may of course express their opinion regarding unions or solicit union membership during their free time on University premises, so long as it does not interfere with work being performed by others.

&lt;sup>2</sup> Alaska Constitution, Article IX, Section 6.

&lt;sup>3</sup> The Alaska Executive Branch Ethics Act also prohibits public employees from using state time, property, equipment, or facilities to benefit employees' "personal" or "financial" interests as those terms are defined in AS 39.52.960.

&lt;sup>4</sup> Performing functions that a union would otherwise perform for itself